30th REUNION

Hillside Class OF '65

"Striving to Keep Our Name Alive"

June 29 - July 3, 1995
Radisson Governor's Inn
Durham, NC

HISTORICAL
Hillside Class of 1965

Many think that the history of a high school class begins the three years before graduation. The 1965 graduating model of Hillside High School began production in the 1940's. Thus, history for us began when television was a novelty, the man on the Moon was a fantasy, and baseball, just as boxing before it, became much more than a sport.

The common denominator in our class is the past four decades. Anyone in the Hillside Class of '65 will react to the song, "Ave Maria"; the title "Prof"; the wind, "Hazel"; the date, November 23, 1963; the Lady, Ms. Rosa Parks; the man, Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.; the sound, "keys sliding along the floor", and much much more.

The years have taught us something that the days never knew. Our past can be recaptured through memories and the sharing of a few fleeting moments with old friends. Our present should be treasured as if nothing is promised. Our future is the product of what we do in the present.

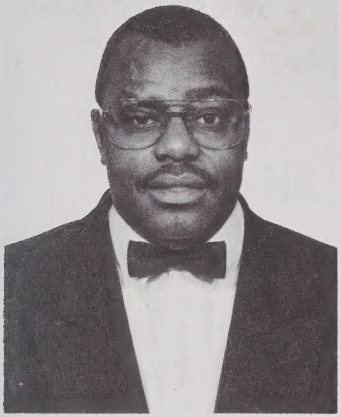

We will always have a past. It is in our children, our energies, our contributions and our dreams.

Our HIGHLIGHTS worthy of recall could be any event which made someone smile, including ourselves. It would be difficult as a group to remember a game score from 1965. It is equally difficult to remember a grade point average during our school days. Many of us didn't have one.

The most important statement we have made as a class today is that we are here caring and sharing. We bring a wealth of knowledge, experience, determination, accomplishments and goals. We live many places, yet we are together. We generate different thoughts, yet we can agree. We are unique, yet the same and we are the only one on this planet. We are "THE HILLSIDE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1965"!!!

President's Message

Jackie Robinson

"TIME" is one true measurement to reveal the value of an organization, the effectiveness of a philosophy, or the result of a cause. We can look back thirty years and have an excellent gauge of the Hillside High School Class of 1965's existence. The past thirty years reflect the commitment of dedicated classmates maintaining class unity. Many of us have been asked over the years: "Why do you put so much effort toward a group from the past?" The answers are really simple. And the more simple some things are, the more difficult they may be to recognize. Our energies to continue this unity is reflected in one word. That word applies to us in the context of a noun, an adjective and a symbol. That word is "CLASS"! If we met to recognize specific class members or for some tangible type purposes, our energies would have diminished long ago. Our definition of the word class denotes unity. Our description of the word class denotes high quality. Our expectation of the word class denotes respect.

Over the years, we have promoted the class reunions as the opportunity to get together and enjoy each other. However, a class is not a temporary group. It is a perpetual existence; so between reunions we offer support, encouragement and on occasion, a window of joy. During those years, we have provided scholarships to our baby hornets and charitable efforts to other causes. Planning is made with all of the classmates in mind, and the results can be measured by the enjoyment of those who have attended over the years. "To attend the Hillside class reunion is to enjoy the reunion."

There is a saying: "Give a man a stage, and he will act; Give him a purpose, and he will perform." Author (ROJA). Your classmates have performed superbly over the years.

For this year of 1995, which appears to be the last year that a graduating class will march out of the nest on Concord Street, we look back thirty years ago, with a humble view of our graduation and experiences. And we have deep respect for the memories of those who cannot be with us. We are glad you're home and know you will treasure these special moments. Why do we have reunions? 'Because we are a CLASS...Because we have CLASS...Because we value CLASS, and just like BO, we know CLASS'. You are home—where your value is measured on an innocent childhood scale, and expectations are for you to just be what you were in 1965—a classmate...Welcome Home!

Hillside Class of 1965 Salutes:

Jeanne Lucas and Coach Willie Bradshaw

Ms. Jeanne Lucas and Mr. Willie Bradshaw, our two honorees for the 30th year reunion, are known locally and nationally for their accomplishments and contributions. They have received awards at all levels, as evidenced by the media coverage and by organizations who request their presence. They are recognized for their professionalism, concern and knowledge. However, these are not the qualities which make them so very special in our eyes. The real qualities of both of these individuals come from the things that they have done, which did not draw media coverage or public recognition. They are humble enough to do many good and excellent deeds which do not obtain public accolades. Most of the class has had personal experiences where they can tell you how Jeanne or Coach Brad has helped someone tremendously with little fanfare. Humble people with great hearts do that kind of stuff. They promote self esteem, yet have their egos in check. The young mother/student during the 60's as well as the 90's, who needed some kind words and encouragement to continue in school—Jeanne gave her that boost. The young man in the 60's as well as the 90's, who needed to know that he was very important, regardless of his background—Coach impressed upon him that he possessed those qualities. These stories and many others make them GREAT. When we have something that special, it is little wonder why there are so many success stories generating from their presence. We recognize your national prominence, but most importantly, we continue to benefit from your immeasurable and humble values. From our class and all classes since...Thanks!

HILLSIDE HIGH SCHOOL

Durham, North Carolina

Hillside High School is a public senior high school located in Durham, North Carolina, and operated under the supervision of the Durham City Board of Education. Durham is an education and industrial city with a population of approximately 90,000 persons located in the Piedmont region of North Carolina. This high school has an enrollment of approximately 1,300 students who represent practically every economic, educational, social and cultural status in the American society. Its personnel is comprised of a principal, an assistant principal — adviser of boys, an adviser of girls, a full time and a part-time counselor, two librarians, fifty-six instructors, two secretaries, one television clerk, seventeen food assistants, and seven custodians. Hillside also has an active PTA which meets four times a year.

STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

The members of Hillside High School believe that education is a continuous process which is constantly evolving. Therefore, our educational program is designed to develop the total child in accordance with his own ability, intelligence, talent, and interest.

In our constantly shifting society, the school strives to be cognizant of future trends and of present conditions which will help the student meet the challenges that he encounters. To accomplish this task, the results of the curricular experiences must project into the environs of home, church, school and the existing democratic society. Effective methods of teaching with an ever broaden curriculum, geared toward the learner's needs, should encourage him to accept and exercise the responsibilities of citizenship in a democracy.

With this educational program, we believe our school is an institution structured to mold desirable character, to encourage inquiring minds, and to develop personality and skills. It is our aim to be concerned not only with academic development, but also to be concerned with procedures of developing basic technical knowledge and skill, strong bodies, fruitful use of leisure time, positive concepts and beliefs, high moral standards, and the appreciation for aesthetic values — all of which will enable the learner to accomplish personal realization, to effect satisfying human relationships, to secure economic efficiency, and to assume civic responsibility.

We seek, therefore, to provide those experiences which will better enable each learner to strive for his maximum potential as he plans to enter the economic and social life of the American society.

OBJECTIVES

Therefore, Hillside High School has the following objectives:

1. To accept the learner as he is and help him to reach his full potential
2. To direct the program toward acceptable standards of moral, spiritual, social, intellectual, economic and cultural behavior
3. To guide the learner so that he recognizes his strengths and weaknesses.
4. To design the program so that each learner is considered an individual with his own method and rate of learning and to guide him through experiences which are interesting and worthwhile
5. To help the learner recognize the value of being a worthwhile citizen, thereby enabling him to meet the challenges and responsibilities of our American way of life
6. To recognize that no pattern of value is absolute, nor is it applicable in all situations
7. To encourage each learner to make maximum progress toward developing behavior that is independent, yet interdependent.

NEW FRIENDS and OLD FRIENDS

Make new friends, but keep the old;

Those are silver, these are gold.

New - made friendships, like new wine,

Age will mellow and refine.

Friendships that have stood the test --

Time and change -- are surely best;

Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,

Friendship never knows decay.

For 'mid old friends, tried and true,

Once more we are youth renew.

But old friends, alas! may die,

New friends must their place supply.

Cherish friendship in your breast --

New is good, but old is best;

Make new friends, but keep the old;

Those are silver, these are gold.

Thank you, parents and teachers, for helping us make our 20th Year Class Reunion a memorable event. Parents! The years have taught us the infinite value of parenting. Teachers! Many professions allow you to see the results of your labors immediately. In your profession, you continually put out fine products, but often it takes years for the results to surface. We trust that you are not disappointed in these 20 year old models.

ALMA MATER

Hillside High, oh Hillside High
We Cherish thee with honor
Tho' someday we're far away
We'll praise thee with our hearts
We'll be true forever
To a school so dear
You will live forever
Through all eternity.

CHORUS:

Dear Old Hillside how we love thee
How we love the Blue and White
From us thy name shall ne'er depart
Never will it die
Our hearts are gleeful
Filled with joy and pride
Your memory lingers always
Three cheers, three cheers for Hillside High.

Upon the hill dear Hillside High
With courage we proclaim thee
We, your sons and daughters, too, are
Always true to you
We'll forever love thee
Yours a lasting name
It will be our duty
To always keep your fame.
